Residential on 0.00 Acres

KALORAMA, Washington, DC

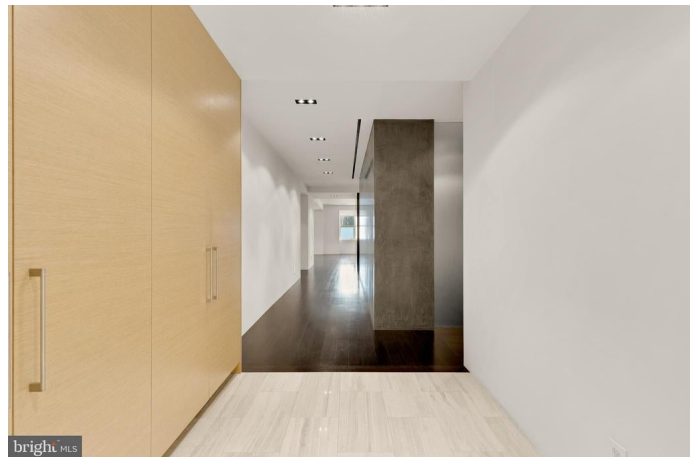

This modernist masterpiece designed by Robert Gurney (FAIA) is maintained in Kalorama's iconic 2101 Connecticut Ave NW co-operative, a pre-war Beaux Arts building that has played home to Washington's most prestigious businesspeople, politicians, ambassadors, and justices. The three bedroom, three bathroom unit was renovated by Added Dimensions in 2014 and Gurney's signature style and meticulous attention to design is expressed through ornate materials, extensive built-in storage, and custom millwork throughout. The unit features integrated Miele appliances, Dornbracht fixtures, a dual zone HVAC system, recessed in-ceiling speakers throughout, and a media closet housing extensive audiophile-grade amps and network routing controls. A full detailed list of materials, specifications, and other details is available upon request. The full-service building features a 24-hour concierge desk, doorman, gym, meeting room, shared wine storage, and an expansive roof deck with entertaining areas, shared gas grills, and gorgeous downtown monument views. Conveys with (1) parking space. Unit is currently unfurnished - select photos, video, and matterport tour are from owner's previous occupancy.
